Ryan - Since your stage debut as The Beast in 4th grade, it has been an absolute joy to watch you perform!

As your 4 years with ATL ends and you prepare to decide where you will spend the next 4 years, we know that you will find your place and your people. We pray that you will bring the same amount of hard work, dedication, and light to your new musical theatre home.

We love you! Break a leg!

A standing ovation for Hailey, our maestro of sound. As the head sound designer your artistic touch amplifies the magic on stage. Congratulations on a performance that resonates far beyond the theater.

*Your passion, dedication, and kindness leave us in awe.
Here's to the happiest 18th birthday, filled with love and applause!*

Love, your proud family

Cora,
Watching you perform has brought us more joy over the years than we can possibly describe. Now, to see you take the lead, a dream you've had for a long time, is such a point of pride and happiness for our whole family. We are so excited for this and the many roles that lie ahead, both on the stage and off.
Break a leg!
Shine bright!
Go be great!
